

THE RULES CAN ALWAYS CHANGE....

MISMATCHED is a dramedy series illustrating the complexities of how communication can go wrong in relationships. Eddie Pyrell, The Pushover, has a picture perfect relationship with his girlfriend Melinda Belluci, The Princess. Eddie is a successful entrepreneur, and Melinda is a stylist, and together they live a happy and wealthy life. However, they realize when they go on a trip with their married friends, Renata Miles, The Workaholic, and Derek Johnson, The Tree Hugger, that their relationship isn't all that perfect, and success is not the only thing that matters in life. Throughout their journey they encounter unexpected obstacles and how they deal with these obstacles is what brings them closer together. We can only imagine what is yet to come.

MISMATCHED was produced by Boundless Films and ANU Productions. The three part pilot was shot in HD, and was directed by Pierre Alex Vachon (Wired, Completely Hammered, Driving Force, Cent Titres).
